Privacy Statement

Ineo Relocation Technologies has established relationships with customers spanning over 20 years of trust. Our customers have chosen to do business with us and we will honor their trust with great care, beginning with the information they have chosen to share with us. We believe our customers' right to privacy should not be compromised. At the same time, we want to offer our customers an array of products and services needed to accomplish their goals. We believe we can do both through the Privacy Policy outlined below.

Recognition of Customer's Expectation of Privacy

We recognize the customers' right to privacy and consider the confidentiality and safekeeping of customer information to be one of our fundamental responsibilities. And while information is critical to providing quality service, we recognize that one of our most important assets is our customers' trust, therefore, confidentiality and safekeeping of customer information is a priority.

Information Management Practices

Customer information is accumulated from a variety of sources. Some information is provided to us directly by customers themselves. Other information is developed by us as a function of providing a product or service to a customer. Still other information is obtained from outside sources. We limit the collection and use of information about our customers to that which is necessary to administer our business, and provide superior service.

Protection of Information

We are committed to the security of our customers' financial and personal information. Our operational and data processing systems are maintained in a secure environment that protects account information from being accessed by third parties.

Limitations on Employee Access to Information

Each of our employees is required to adhere to the Company's "Code of Conduct," which states that customer information is considered private and privileged and is to be used solely for the purpose of providing our customers with the finest service available.

Access to customer information is limited to those employees with a business need to know. Employees are educated on the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of customer information. Because of this important responsibility, employees who violate the "Code of Conduct" are subject to disciplinary measures.
